

Dear Sirs, Please reconsider your intention of further deregulation of the media. The airwaves belong to the public and media consolidation limits our access to free and diverse speech.